All Early Years attendees will be together for Sessions 1 and 2. They will then split into 2 groups for attending Sessions 3 and 4.

1. Learning together

Marianne Nairn & Gillian Forbes
CALA/ Peeple

Learning Together - Helping children and parents to play and learn together.

2. Introduction to Gàidhlig nan Òg

Jackie Mullen

Jackie Mullen, co-ordinator of Stòrlann's new resource Gàidhlig nan Òg, will be delivering a workshop on its content and potential use in both early years and home settings.

There will be an opportunity to look at the website layout and explore some of the themes within it. e.g The Body & Face, Numbers and Daily Routines.

3. Cluich a 'muigh

Bòrd na Gàidhlig Early Years Workers

Ideas and resources for simple activities for use outside with parents and young children.

4. Let's sing together

Lisa MacDonald

Song is a powerful way to engage young children in language learning opportunities. With care, and with an understanding of the particular needs of the target audience, the learning potential can be maximised.
