

Lorna Nic an t-Sagairt

'S ann à Tòrabhaig a tha mi air an Eilean Sgitheanach. Dh'ionnsaich mi Gàidhlig anns an Àrd-sgoil ann am Port Rìgh le dithis thidsearan aibheiseach (AI agus DR Dòmhnallach). Chaidh mi gu Sabhal Mòr Ostaig às dèidh dhomh an sgoil fhàgail ach cha do ghabh mi ceum ann an teagasg gu deich bliadhna air ais. Nuair a cheumnaich mi chaidh mi gu Dùn Èideann agus an uair sin don Ghearasdan far an robh mi a' teagasg san Àrd-sgoil. Thill mi dhachaigh dhan Eilean ann an 2018 leis an teaghlach agam agus fhuair mi teisteanas ann an teagasg bun-sgoile.

Tha ùidh mhòr agam ann an gàirnealairachd agus bidh mi a' cleachdadh agus a' rannsachadh olaichean luaineach agus leigheasan lusragach. 'S toigh leam a bhith a' dèanamh iòga, ged a tha mi car crùbach na làithean sa.

Lorna MacTaggart

I am from Toravaig on the Isle of Skye. I learned Gaelic in Portree High School with two excellent teachers (AJ and DR MacDonald). I went to Sabhal Mòr Ostaig when I left school but didn't do a teaching degree until ten years ago. When I graduated I went to Edinburgh and to Fort William where I taught in the High School. I returned home to Skye in 2018 with my family and I did a qualification in primary teaching.

I am very interested in gardening and I use and research essential oils and herbal treatments. I like doing yoga although I am a bit stiff these days.